WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 28.

Persons leaving the city can have the Gazette mailed to any address, postage prepaid, for any length of time, at the rate of fifty cents per month.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Subscribers will please bear in mind that the carriers are not allowed to collect for the GAZETTE.

For this section fair weather, stationary temperature, northeasterly winds.

A NOVEL SUIT.—An important case was before the Orange County Court on Monday concerning the Virginia Midland road as to right of way through lands originally owned by Hon. B. Johnston Barbour. The case came up on motion to quash the report of certain commissioners appointed by the court to view the land in dispute and make report. The case was elaborately argued on both sides. The court overruled the motion to quash and bills of exception were filed, and the case will be taken to the appellate courts. The question at issue is a novel one—when a grant is made conveying certain rights in a deed, and in consideration of others acknowledged by the grantee, whether or not a subsequent purchaser takes all rights vested in the grantor.

WHEAT.—The quality of the offerings of wheat in this market for some time past has been very poor, which, of course, has had a depressing effect, but notwithstanding this the market here has kept up very well and as good prices are paid in this city as anywhere else. To show that the Alexandria market keeps abreast with those of other cities, we publish the following from a Baltimore price current of yesterday: "In quality of offerings there was nothing tempting to millers, and the best sample in sight was sold at $2. The damaged, sprouted, and inferior lots brought 66, 60, 62, 63, 65, 66, 72, 79, 80 and comprised as usual the bulk of the offerings."

DISSATISFIED REPUBLICANS.—The dissatisfaction among the republican kickers at the manner in which they have recently been treated by the Mahoneites in this city is becoming more intense, and the action of those in the First ward in openly repudiating the ticket nominated at Norfolk last week, is being followed in the other wards. Last night a meeting was held in the Fourth ward, at which resolutions similar to those adopted in the First ward on Monday night were adopted, and it is said that the "kickers" will have similar meetings in the other wards in a few days. The dissatisfaction, it is said, has extended to Fairfax county.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with two prisoners and three lodgers at the station house.

Justice May this morning disposed of the following cases:

Noble Smith, arrested by officers Hayes and Nightingale charged with unlawful shooting, was fined $2.50.

Henry Anderson, colored, arrested by officer Jones, charged with stealing $20 from the pocket of Harry Rice, in the latter's store on Saturday night last, was sent to jail for further examination.

THE SODALITY LYCEUM.—A meeting of this association held at St. Mary's hall last night was called to order by President Jno. T. Rafferty. A committee consisting of Mr. T. Rafferty, chairman, and Messrs. Smith, E. Birrell and F. Carroll was appointed to look into the needs of the Lyceum. A paper from the "Young Men's Catholic Union of the United States" was read and laid on the table for consideration. It was decided that the entertainment programme be dispensed with. The meeting adjourned until next Tuesday evening.

THE LOUDOUN FAIR.—The sixth annual fair of the Loudoun Live Stock Exhibition Association, J. B. Beverly, president, W. D. Hemphstone, secretary, and N. S. Pursell, treasurer, began yesterday at their grounds, near Leesburg. The track is in splendid condition, the running and trotting horses are numerous, and all other departments are well supplied with exhibits, while the live stock already entered exceed in numbers and quality the show of any former year. The attendance was good. A number of persons from this city were present.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. D. H. Lunt has returned from a pleasant trip to Atlantic City. He says he left the following Alexandrians there: Mayor Downham, ex-Alderman Strauss, Mr. Park Agnew and children, Mrs. Henry Green and the Misses Aherne.

Mr. J. C. Milburn is visiting friends in Fauquier and Prince William.

Mrs. Martha Chatham and the Misses Lunt have returned from Ocean Grove.

Mrs. W. H. Demaine has gone to Colonial Beach to spend a month.

OPERA HOUSE.—As will be seen by an advertisement in another column the season at this popular place of amusement will open next Monday with the great melodrama, soundbusting in thrilling situations and sensational climaxes, entitled "Passion's Slave." The play has been secured here for the opening at great expense and will be presented here by a good company with a full set of scenery appropriate to each act.

NO FISHING.—Not only have the police authorities of this city and Fairfax county put a stop to unlawful gunning in this vicinity, but yesterday a Fairfax county constable, armed with a revolver, patrolled Hunting Creek bridge and would allow no one to fish from that bridge. This action is considered by anglers to be carrying matters too far.

INVITATION ACCEPTED.—At a called meeting of Lee Camp held last night the invitation extended the camp to attend the ceremonies of the unveiling of the Confederate monument at Manassas on Friday next, was accepted. The Camp will leave here on Friday morning carrying their handsome new flag, and will return the same night.

PROPERTY SOLD.—Wm. Rudd et al. have sold to John Cheeser a house and lot on the north side of Duke street, between Alfred and Patrick, for $900.

Messrs. Green & Wise have sold for Mrs. P. H. Hood, 15 acres of land near the Thelwood cemetery, to Mr. Poulton, of Washington, for $50 per acre.

DEATHS.—A malignant type of dysentery is prevalent in Fairfax county, and many deaths have occurred from the disease during the past week. Among those who have died within the past few days were Mrs. Philip Lee and Mr. G. R. Whaley, who lived in the Chantilly neighborhood.

THE CONFEDERATE MONUMENT will be dedicated at Manassas August 30th. Tickets will be sold from Alexandria (R. & D. R. E.) August 29th and morning trains August 30th, due to return until August 31st. Fare for round trip seventy-five cents.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The excursion season is drawing to a close. It has been only a fair one.

Mr. Augustus Dean sold his punyboat Jobe Gray, to-day, to parties in Washington for $300.

The convention to take action looking to the restoration of the C. & O. canal will be held at Hagerstown, Md., September 10.

The storm which has been prevailing at Norfolk for the past few days has prevented the arrival or departure of the Washington steamers.

Many persons from this city will doubtless attend the services of the dedication of the Confederate monument at Manassas on Friday. As will be seen by a notice elsewhere, reduced rate tickets will be sold over the Midland road.

Water has been turned into the Georgetown level of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal in small quantities to clear out the accumulations made there, but as yet there has been no flow sufficient to move the Georgetown mills.

The members of the Musical Association who have been spending the past two weeks at St. George's Island have returned.

Mr. G. E. Price will have for sale in market tomorrow some fine salt water tailors and trout.

By the workings of Maine's new tramp law it is better to be drunk than be caught begging. In the first case the penalty is fifteen days' hard labor, in the second it is sixty.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, August 28.—The stock market this morning opened with more animation than on any day for a long time, though the general list was dull and uninteresting. First prices were generally small fractions higher, and further improvement extending to 1/2 per cent. was made in the early trading. Freer offerings were met at the higher prices, however, and the market held, yielded slightly and remained steady, becoming dull toward the end of the hour. At eleven o'clock the market was quiet and firm at about the best prices reached. Money easy at 4 1/4%.
